- 296-13 Administrative error claims where NOA is sent to be effective 3/1/00 or after are limited to collection at the greater of 5% of allotment level or $10, and for a total of 36 months (Lomeli v. Saenz; ACL 00-59)
- 296-13A Once adjustment has begun, there is no further collection of a Lomeli overissuance after the 36 consecutive months have passed (Lomeli v. Saenz; ACL 00-87)
- 296-13B When, during the 36 consecutive months of potential adjustment under Lomeli, the person is not an FS recipient, the county may take action to recover the overissuance (ACL 00-87)
- 296-13C Counties should not combine adjustments of pre-Lomeli and Lomeli overissuances (ACL 00-87)
- 296-13D In general (but not in Lomeli cases) overissuances can be collected simultaneously, at the maximum allowable rate for the overissuance which allows the quickest recovery (63-801.73; ACIN I-124-00; ACL 00-87)
- 296-13E Federal rules on compromising claims (7 CFR 273.18(e)(7))
- 296-13F State regulation originally says that Lomeli affects only those overissuances occurring on or after 3/1/00, despite stipulated judgment that applies to all NOAs sent to be effective 3/1/00 or later, no matter when the FS administrative error overissuance occurred; regulation then modified to comport with Lomeli judgment (63-801.222, rev. 1/14/02; Lomeli v. Saenz)
- 296-13G CDSS directs counties not to divide overissuances into separate claims to frustrate Lomeli (ACL 02-21)
- 296-14 Household cannot be held liable for FS overissuance due to county failure to include Social Security COLA but can receive benefits if underissuance occurs (63-504.462(b)(1)(A); ACIN I-105-00, I-91-01)
- 296-15 Federal rules preclude using additional means of recovery when adjustment of FS allotment is occurring, except if additional payment is voluntary, or is collected from irregular and unexpected funds (7 CFR 273.18(g)(1))
- 296-16 When a "hearing officer" determines that a claim exists, then a new NOA must be sent regarding the overissuance (63-504.261)
